

1. Add Database CRUD operations to above MVC web application using JDBC Classes.
2. Develop a structured dynamic web application(e.g. Library Management System) using servlets, deploy it in Tomcat.
3. Use HTTP session in the air ticket reservation system.
4. Separate UI code from the controller code in your Library Management System by incorporating JSP and Servlets.
5. Complete the implementation of Air Ticket Reservation System.
6. Implement MVC based web application using JSP and Servlets.
7. Demonstrate Hibernate as standalone library in Java application.
8. Develop a web application (Online Bookshop) using Hibernate Persistence.
9. Design and deploy Library Management System using Spring Web.
10. Create Hello World Spring Boot Web application.
11. Check Libraries imported by Spring Boot.
12. Create Spring Boot CRUD application with Thymeleaf as View technology.
13. Create REST API for Employee Management using Spring Boot.
14. Invoke it from another Spring Boot Web application using REST Template.
15. Design & Test Spring Application.
16. Secure the Spring Web application created in earlier exercise. Sessions 28, 29 & 30: (6T+ 6L+ 3SL).
17. Demonstration of Spring Boot Microservices